

Are vs. Our

'Are' and 'our' may sound similar, but they are very different. Choose either 'are' or 'our' to complete each sentence below.

are 'Are' (a verb) is a form of the verb to be. It is a verb our 'Our' (an adjective) is possessive, and shows ownership

1. We have to board _____ dogs before we go on holiday.
2. The neighbors _____ very kind and friendly.
3. Pat and Ellan _____ good friends.
4. We _____ going to be late for work if we don't hurry.
5. _____ mother read us _____ favorite book last night.
6. _____ you hungry? _____ grandmother baked a cake.
7. It's _____ turn to host the barbecue, isn't it?
8. Today is _____ anniversary, but I think my husband forgot about it.
9. I'm so glad that you like it! It's _____ favorite restaurant.
10. I'm so excited that you _____ joining _____ study group.